Autumn Conference 2012

Ethics and Dementia Care

Thursday 22nd November 2012

Ethical issues are faced on a daily basis by people with dementia and their caregivers:

- What is the right thing to do?
- Do I have consent?
- Have I made the wrong decision?
- Is this what I would want for myself?

The 2012 DSIDC Autumn Conference Ethics and Dementia Care will be addressing issues such as these and anyone who is involved in dementia care – health and social care workers, family caregivers or people with dementia – will find the topics covered by our expert speakers stimulating and thought-provoking.
